

Take to the skies to find birds using the four common ways to identify them!

behavior
habitat
color pattern
size and shape
random

BINGO

bird with yellow feathers bird with a large beak

bird flying high in the sky bird wading in water

bird singing

natural bird's nest birds flying in a V formation bird with one feather color bird that swoops and zips nonnative bird species

bird with blue feathers bird climbing the bark of a tree

FREE SPACE!

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE BIRD?

bird fluttering in tops of trees bird with two or more feather colors bird on water

bird smaller than a crow bird feeding on the ground bird with long legs

bird with red feathers feeder, bird house, or bird bath bird with white feathers bird that is part of a flock (5 or more of the same bird) bird smaller than a robin bird perched on the edge of a building or telephone wire

